

MAYOR COMMENDS NEW YORK POLICE

"Congratulates Waldo on Arrest of Men in Rosenthal Case."

ASSAILS WHITMAN'S OFFICE

"Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie" Plead Not Guilty to Indictments.

New York, September 18.—Harry Horowitz, alias "Gyp the Blood," and Louis Rosenthal, alias "Lefty Louie," charged with being two of the four men who fired the shots that ended the life of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, entered pleas of not guilty to indictments of murder in the first degree when arraigned before Supreme Court Justice Goff to-day.

The plea was made through their attorneys. The accused men were remanded pending the naming of a date for their trial.

Acting District Attorney Moss continued to-day the examination of witnesses at the secret John Doe inquiry to determine whether the police suppressed any incriminating letters reported to have been found in "Gyp" and "Lefty's" flat. He refused to say what progress had been made.

Mayor Gaynor to-day sent a letter to Commissioner Waldo congratulating him upon the arrest of all the persons charged with complicity in the Rosenthal murder and attacking the district attorney's office.

"The cruel accusation, emanating like all the principal falsehoods in this case from the district attorney's office, that the police designedly invented and entered these false numbers on the blotter to prevent the capture of the motor car, is baseless in the sight of every sensible man," wrote the Mayor. "The period of clamor and falsehood seems now to be passing, and the whole community is beginning to see how basely they have been imposed upon by the invented falsehoods which have been published. While all this falsehood and clamor against the police force was going on, I watched with anxiety to see whether it was breaking down the discipline of the force, for which it was designed. I am happy now to congratulate the whole force on the admirable way in which they have conducted themselves under the most trying circumstances. Notwithstanding that one of their number was found grafting, I have faith in the force as a whole."

VICTIM OF HAZING AT WAKE FOREST

Russell Ferrell, of Raleigh, Confined in College Infirmary.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., September 18.—In the light of recent college hazing developments in this State and the determined movement likely to result for ending for all time this practice in North Carolina, there is special interest in the fact that developed here that Russell Ferrell, freshman at Wake Forest College is recovering in the infirmary there from the effects of hazing. He is a son of Professor W. J. Ferrell, of Meredith College. Nothing having been heard from him here for several days, there was special inquiry of the college authorities as to Ferrell, and the information came that he was laid up in the infirmary on account of hazing. Several times, shortly after the opening, the college hazers called at Ferrell's boarding house for him, but his landlady made the hazers clear out without their intended victim. Finally they slipped in, captured their man and put him through stunts that resulted in infirmary treatment for several days. Assurances came from the college that Ferrell's injuries were not really serious.

The Berry Hat Shop for Men

Announces the pending retirement of the straw hat and the advent of the soft hat

A few days more and the soft hat or derby will officially supersede the straw, to the tune of "Stop Kicking My Hat Around." But many men whose straw hats are in a feverish condition, and who are anxious for a change, will welcome this announcement ahead of time.

As for the styles this fall, one visit to the Berry Hat Shop will give you all the data you need on the subject, and it will be correct data, too. We have ransacked two continents for it, and you can be assured at the outset that Berry models are authentic and exclusive.

America—which is Stetson—contributes a great number of new Derbies and Soft Hats; England furnishes a flock of new Bowlers and Wool Hats; France and Belgium salama in Alpines; and Austria kowtows in velours. Models galore—every one of them distinctive, and many of them our exclusive property—and yours.

New Stetson Derbies $3.50 to $5.00
New Stetson Soft Hats $3.50 to $10.00

GRAHAM BECOMES MOOSE CANDIDATE

Ninth District Republican Expected to Draw Many Votes From Slomp.

Walter Graham, of Tasewell County, has made announcement of his intention to be a candidate for Congress from the Ninth District as a Progressive, in opposition to General Rufus A. Ayers, the Democratic candidate, and Representative C. B. Slomp, the Republican nominee. Mr. Graham will have a statement to the voters, it is understood, in a few days.

His candidacy is the outcome of the action of the Republican convention in Bristol, which, although composed in the proportion of at least 70 per cent of Progressives, nominated Mr. Slomp, who had announced he would not accept the nomination. He has since, however, reconsidered and is willing to go back to Congress.

Since the convention it has been claimed that complimentary votes were being cast for Mr. Slomp, with the understanding that he would not accept, and that before anybody knew it he was the nominee. The Progressives have been angry ever since. The truth seems to be that they had no leader.

It is said Mr. Graham believes he can be elected, claiming that a vast majority of the Republicans of the Ninth, with some of the Democrats, desire the election of a Progressive President and Congress.

Two years ago President Roosevelt said at Bristol, in a speech in behalf of Slomp, who was then opposed by Henry C. Stuart, that Slomp was "as straight as a string." In March of this year the Republican State Convention at Roanoke, under Mr. Slomp's domination, passed a resolution condemning the third-term idea and instructed the delegation for Taft.

REPORTS HOLD-UP

Leo N. Donati, However, Route Highwayman With Revolver. Leo N. Donati, of the Nine-Mile Road, Henrico County, yesterday reported to the police that he was held up by two negro highwaymen at Twenty-ninth and S. Streets shortly after midnight. He did not obey their command of "Hands up," but instead drew a revolver and opened fire, routing the footpads. While not certain, he said, he thought he had hit one of them in the leg. Both escaped.

TRIAL OF VANN WILL BEGIN TO-DAY

About Fifty Witnesses Summoned by State—Venue of 150 for Jury.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Elizabeth City, N. C., September 18.—In his prison cell this afternoon B. F. Vann, accused murderer of young Oliver Laiden, of Belle Ridge, received a hair cut and shave, preparatory to his appearance in court to-morrow morning to stand trial before a jury. On the eve of his trial, Vann appeared moody and restless. He is attended almost constantly by his mother, a frail, faded woman, who sits close alongside the bars of the cell. It became known to-day that the prosecution had summoned approximately fifty witnesses in the case. The defense has not announced the number of witnesses it will call, but it is supposed that its action will depend largely on the course pursued by the State.

Sheriff Reid and his deputy were busy to-day throughout the country summoning the 150 veniremen from which an attempt will be made to-morrow to select the trial jury.

SHOT FROM REAR KILLS AGED MAN

His Body Then Robbed of Watch and Money—Young Negro Suspected.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Williamsburg, Va., September 18.—W. A. S. Adams, an aged farmer, whose home was on the Willie Taylor farm near Ewell, just across the James City line in York County, was brutally murdered and his body robbed of a valuable gold watch and a small sum of money yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. An examination of the body showed that the contents of a shot gun had been fired into the head of the victim at close range, and that death was instantaneous. A young negro man is under suspicion of having committed the crime, but is still at large. The crime has deeply stirred the neighborhood where the dead man lived and was held in high esteem. Mr. Adams left his home yesterday afternoon, telling his wife that he would be back by 6 o'clock. He went to Lightfoot and later came to Ewell to get his mail. The suspected negro was seen to join Mr. Adams near Ewell station and walk off up the road with him, carrying a shot gun on his shoulder. It is about a half mile to where the crime was committed, and in a few minutes after leaving Ewell, people there heard the report of a gun. In the meantime Mrs. Adams, becoming uneasy when 5 o'clock arrived and her husband had not returned, lighted a lantern and started toward Ewell. She stumbled on the dead body of her husband lying in the road where it had fallen, and horrified, she hastened to Ewell with the news.

Coroner W. B. Schenck, of Oaktree, was notified last night, but did not know that Mr. Adams had been murdered. He was only told that the body had been found in the woods and he thought it was an accident. The deputy sheriff of York, W. B. Ewan, was also notified last night, but he did not arrive on the scene till this morning. No effort was made to apprehend the murderer until late to-day, when all nearby cities were given a description of the suspect.

Coroner Schenck held an inquest this afternoon, the verdict being that the victim came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by parties unknown. The load of shot entered at the base of the brain and made a deep wound, shattering the skull. It is supposed that the man who fired the fatal shot was about ten feet in the rear of his victim.

Mr. Adams came to Williamsburg from Newport News five or six years ago and engaged in the insurance business here till his health began to fail, when he moved to Hotwater, James City County, and opened a small store, acting as postmaster at the place. He sold out a couple of years ago and moved to the farm near which he was murdered. He was originally from Pennsylvania and the only other member of his family was his wife.

SEPARATE CONVENTIONS.

Held by Republican Faction in Fifth District. Greensboro, N. C., September 18.—Separate conventions were held here yesterday by the Taft and Roosevelt Republicans of the Fifth Congressional District, the Roosevelt supporters marching in a body from the regular hall after their opponents, though numerically weaker, had gained control of the convention through a county unit rule, upheld by Chairman Benbow.

Assembling in another building, the Roosevelt delegates adopted resolutions denouncing the action of a few Federal postmasters and formally proclaiming severance from their Republican party. A call was issued for a convention to nominate a candidate for Congress. C. W. Curry, of Guilford, was to have been supported by the Progressive delegates to-day, but the regular convention authorized its executive committee to choose a candidate for Congress. R. L. Haywood, of Surry, having refused to make the race after his name had been agreed upon.

C. D. Turner, of Orange, was nominated for presidential elector.
